

Art Gallery Event Refund Policy

The Art Gallery of South Australia does not process refunds for event bookings but can offer a credit for future events if we receive notice of your cancellation at least five working days prior to an event. The Gallery reserves the right to cancel events. If an event is cancelled, all registered participants will be notified and full refunds issued.